Mr. Margaret Weeklie and Miss Ruth Grady, Greenville, and Miss Margaret and Margaret Hines, Harford, were the guests of Mrs. E. B. Pendleton last week.

By taking advantage of the large crowds which are drawn to hear the speakers at the Ohio County Fair, the Harford Herald is enabled to secure a good hearing for their candidate, Mr. Hindman.

This was the case of the speaking here Monday. A dispatch in the Courier-Journal yesterday morning announcing that the Harford Herald was to be heard by Mr. Hindman, and no mention was made of the fact that the crowd would be so large.

The correspondent sought to make the impression that this big crowd came to hear Hindman, when everybody knew that such was not the case by any means. At their convention here last summer, less than a dozen gold men were present and it is not likely more than a number heard Mr. Hindman.

Such misrepresentation as that employed by the Courier-Journal in its article is not only a disservice to Mr. Hindman, but is also a disservice to the Harford Herald.

Monday was the day appointed for the speaking of the county candidates for the Ohio County Fair. There were in town and the court house were crowded.

The candidates, the gold-clothed speakers for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, was also on hand and spoke. The agreement was that he should here be the only speaker who had limited his speech to one hour, which was quite a concession, as there was a large crowd of men and women to hear him.

After getting the stand, however, he paid no attention to the agreement, but kept on talking for an hour beyond his allotted time. This of course was to the great advantage of the country extended him, which, if the circumstances had been reversed and he had been the one who was to speak, would have been a great disadvantage.
